JOHN 17:21

me through their word, ²¹that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have given me. ²²The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, ²³I am in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me. ²⁴Father, I desire that they also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, so that they may see my glory that you have given me, because you loved me before the foundation of the world. ²⁵O righteous Father, even though the world does not know you, I know you, and these know that you have sent me. ²⁶I made known to them your name, and I will continue to make it known, that the love which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them."

Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples across the brook Kidron, where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. ²Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples. ³So Judas, having procured a band of soldiers and some officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, went there with lanterns, torches and weapons. ⁴Then Jesus, knowing all that would happen to him, came forward and said to them, "Whom do you seek?" ⁵They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am he." ⁶When he was standing with them, "Whom are you seeking again?" ⁷When Jesus drew back and fell to the ground, they said, "Jesus, do you seek?" ⁸Jesus answered, "I of Nazareth." ⁹Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he. So, if you seek me, let these men go." ¹⁰Then he said to the chief priest, "If I was to fulfill the word that he has spoken: 'Of those whom you gave me I have lost not one.'" ¹¹Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. ¹²So Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into its sheath; shall I not drink the cup that the Father has given me?"

Jesus Faces Annas and Caiaphas

¹³So the band of soldiers and their captain and the officers of the Jews' arrested Jesus and bound him. ¹⁴First they led him to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. ¹⁵It was Caiaphas who had advised the Jews that it would be expedient that one man should die for the people.

Peter Denies Jesus

¹⁶Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he entered with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest. ¹⁷But Peter stood outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the servant who kept watch at the door, and brought Peter in. ¹⁸The servant girl at the door said to Peter, "You also are not one of this man's disciples, are you?" He said, "I am not." ¹⁹Now the servants and officers had made a charcoal fire, because it was cold, and they were standing and warming themselves. Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

The High Priest Questions Jesus

²⁰The high priest then questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching. ²¹Jesus answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world. I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret." ²²Why do you ask me what I said to them; they know what I said to them. ²³When he had said these things, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus with his hand, saying, "Is that how you answer the high priest?" ²⁴Jesus answered him, "If what I said is wrong, bear witness about the wrong; but if what I said is right, why do you strike me?" ²⁵Annas then sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter Denies Jesus Again

²⁶Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. So they said to him, "You also are not one of his disciples, are you?" He denied it and said, "I am not." ²⁷One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?" ²⁸Peter again denied it, and at once a rooster crowed.

Jesus Before Pilate

²⁹Then they led Jesus from the house of Caiaphas to the governor's headquarters. ³⁰It was early morning. They themselves did not enter the governor's headquarters, so that they would not be defiled, so that they could eat the Passover. ³¹So Pilate went outside to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?" ³²They answered him, "If this man were not doing evil, we would not have delivered him over to you." ³³Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law."
